Honorovo, June 4rm, 1894. HAWAII is not a country to which one would ordinarily look for constitutional precedents. It is, however, interesting to note that a quesdiscussion in Hongkong has also been raised there. We refer to the question of officials voting in respect of their own salaries. In Hawaii, as in Hongkong, a policy of retrenchment is being followed, and on the Appropriation Bill being brought up in the watches, 21,600 eliver watches, and 10,800 nickel Council the salaries of all officials, including the Ministers, were carefully scrutinised. being able not only to manufacture, but to sell. The salary of the Minister of Finance was entered in the Bill as $9,600. It was promembers of Council suggested that Ministhemselves on record as favouring the reduction, a statement which elicited applause. Ministers present two voted for the reduction and two against, the total vote being salary was therefore passed at $9,000 instead of $9,600. The rule of the Council bearing on the subject is as follows .- " No "member shall be permitted to vote on any "question where his private right, distinct "from public interest, is immediately con-"cerned." The Hamatian. Gazette, in commenting on the incident, says :- "That the "amount of a salary is a matter of public "interest is indisputable. Ere long, however, we hope that many of the officials will be transferred to the control of a Municipal Council, to whom they will be solely responsible. For the past balf-century the intelligent community of Hongkong has idly stood by and allowed the affairs of the town to be regulated by irresponsible officials, frequently men with absolutely no lical knowledge, sometimes with little capacity. and almost invariably wrapped up in traditions of red tapa. The community DRAINS, WATER-CLOSETS, &c., and for the is now, in the visitation of the plague, reaping a heavy penalty for its past neglect. The lesson is too plain and painful to be disregarded. The community must be up and Half an ounce (about one table-sponeful) of doing and set its bouse in order itself, trusting no longer to irresponsible officials. It may be an excellent bling to have a majority of unofficial members in the Lagislative Council to talk, but what is more irreently required is a Municipal Council composed of men able and willing to work and who are expected to do so, a Council endowed with executive functions and possessing full control over its own officers, so as to be able to enforce its orders. It is simply unthinkable that Taipingshan could ever have been allowed to fall into and continue in the coudition which has proved so favourable to the spread of the plague had the town's affairs been managed by a Municipal Council.

I can point out soores of houses where his is the case and that in new houses which have been built and drained in accordance with our most recent Building Ordinance and Sanilary Bys-laws, to say nothing of the state of things in the older houses in the Colony. The downpipe becomes choked by kitchen refuse from one of the upper fliors a bamboo is then brought into requisition to olear it with the result that due to certain small organisms which obtain the pipe is damaged and the refue trickles down the walls to be absorbed by the brickwork and give off noxious gases oreating disease. The entrance to the drain batomes choked in the like manner and the friendly

AMOY:

Mest absard remours have been spread in Amoy, mainly through native passengers from Hongkong, concerning the plague at the latter numed port. Although there is not a bit of truth in the rumours a on beginning to end, we] give a few, just to show what the brains of John Chinaman are capable of fabrication. The first rumour which reached Amoy was, that a woman, native of Canton was about giving birth to a child when the officers visiting the house all of a sudden rushed in and socing the woman laying in bed half unconscious, took hold of her and carried her on a stretcher to the hose pital. The woman was never seen again, and as ramour saga, the doctors experimented on the woman's bedy before death set in, and after outting up the same into several pieces threw it into the sea, but minus the heart, which was to be made into medicine. Most of the natives believe in a l this rot. The latest, bit of rubbish told is, that the Hongkong government seized On New York -400 Chinamen by military force and shipped them to Europe, according to instructions received from the foreign devile king (Fwan Kwai Ong); these men upon arrival are to be put in a large machine and ground into powder, for medicine to be used by the royal family. When John Chinaman tells the atrocions lies, he det it so consingly that those who listen to him believe every word be utters.

The Chief magistrate at this port has had placards posted up everywhere, telling the OH YORGHAMA owners of native banks to form a corporation between themselves with a fund of not less than $30,000. The object of this corportion is to help each other in case of bankruptcy. The magistrate also informs the different native banks that should any of them go int bankrupicy and fail to pay their oreditors, they will in future be dealt with very saverely. The smaller banks of course preise the worthy magistrate and speak of bim as if he were a "joss," but the larger banks think of the magistrate just the opposite and won't even take any notice of the matter. - Amon News.
